The Trustee is authorised under its own Australian Financial Services Licence 530893 to provide certain financial services in relation to this Discretionary Trust to the Members including issuing interests in the Discretionary Trust. The respective roles of the Trustee and the Insurance Broker are set out in detail in the FSG.

This miscellaneous financial risk product is distributed by the Advocate electronically to Members only.

Section 1: Member Information

Boxcutter Protection Discretionary Trust Overview

The Discretionary Trust is a risk cover, but it is not insurance because the Trustee has a discretion as to whether or not to pay a Claim and how much to pay.

The Discretionary Trust has been established to help manage the Members' risk of physical loss, destruction or damage to goods held in storage with the applicable Advocate, subject to the terms of coverage outlined in this PDS.

Additional information relating to limits and exclusions can be found in Section 2 of this PDS.

The Trustee pools the Membership Contributions of all Members and holds them in the Fund. The Fund is used to meet Claims under the Trust Cover, purchase any (re)insurance or other risk management services and meet the costs of establishing and running the Discretionary Trust.

Membership of the Discretionary Trust is for the Period of Cover. A Claimant is entitled to lodge a Claim for events which, occur during the Period of Cover providing the claim is lodged during the Fund Period.

The Trustee will determine and advise the Member and the applicable Advocate of any change to the Membership Contributions and/or Trust Cover, in writing not later than 14 days' before any change comes into effect. The Member may advise the Trustee or the applicable Advocate if it does not agree to the changes and cancel its Membership before the next monthly tax invoice is issued.

If the Trustee accepts a Claim, the Claimant must pay the Individual Member's Deductible as shown below. At the Trustee's discretion, the Trustee may pay the Claim and all associated expenses incurred under the Trust Cover.

The Discretionary Trust is neither authorised under nor subject to the Insurance Act 1973, nor is it regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority ("APRA").

Upon the closing of each Fund year, any surplus in the Fund will be disbursed for the benefit of the majority of the Members of the Fund, at the discretion of the Trustee. This could be applied in the following ways:

- As a rebate on contributions for subsequent years; or
- For expenditure on administrative or operational issues relevant to the Fund; or
- On issues, which are relevant to managing the Members' risks under its storage arrangement with the applicable Advocate or which advance the purposes of the Fund generally.

The Trustee can dissolve the Trust after the expiry of the Fund Period. Upon dissolution of the Trust, any Fund balance remaining after payment of all liabilities of the Trust must be paid to a charity at the Trustee's discretion to which gifts are deductible in accordance with the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

Individual Member's Deductible

On any Claim accepted by the Trustee, the Member will have to satisfy the following Individual Member Deductible before the Trust Cover will respond:

- $100 each and every loss

Trust Cover

Note: Due to the Trustee's discretion, a Claim can be lodged under the Trust Cover for any event, not only those events that would be covered under the Cover (see Section 2 of the PDS) and the Trustee will consider the Claim.

A benefit of the discretionary Trust Cover is that Claims, which may not be covered under Section 2 of the PDS may be paid by the Trustee, subject to this being for the benefit of the Members. However, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may not exercise its discretion in favour of the Claimant. For details of further risks associated with this product, please refer to Section 3 of this PDS.

In exercising its discretion, the Trustee cannot be influenced by anyone and is legally bound to conduct its duties and obligations in accordance with trust law. The Trustee must settle each Claim in accordance with the merits of the Claim.

Making a Claim

All Claims or potential Claims are to be notified to the claims manager as soon as possible within the Fund Period. Members should aim to notify the claims manager of any Claim no later than three (3) months from an occurrence in order to mitigate the Members' loss/es. The claims manager's details are set out below. A claim form can be obtained by contacting the applicable Advocate, the Insurance Broker or by contacting the claims manager.

Service Provider Details

The Trustee uses various third parties to assist it in carrying out its functions:

- Claims Management and Risk Management Services: Claims X Pty Ltd, ABN 57 649 962 701, AFS Licence No. 530894, e-mail claims.au@claimsx.com.au or Telephone: 1300 375 723.
- Insurance Broker: Howden Insurance Brokers (Australia) Pty Ltd, ABN 79 644 885 389, AFS Licence No. 539613.
- Auditor: BDO Audit (SA) Pty Ltd.

Costs, Fees and Charges

Total monthly cost of the level of cover selected is detailed on the Advocate's tax invoice and will range depending on the limits selected. The total monthly cost may fall in the following range:-

Cost per month	Protection cover value range
$8.00 - $15.00	$4,000 - $5,000
$13.00 - $30.00	$6,000 - $10,000

Please note the above pricing are estimates only and the actual price may vary subject to the location and risk profile of actual cover purchased.

Reports

The accounts of the Trust are audited annually by an external auditor. A Member can request the accounting and other records of the Trust.

A copy of the quarterly financial report and the annual audited report will be provided to the Member upon request. The Trustee must ensure the Members have reasonable access, which may include the uploading of such information to a designated website, data room or another form of digital server.

As part of the Discretionary Trust's annual financial report, the Trustee will declare Members' detailed Claims data to all Members and to the service providers referred to in Section 1 under "Service Provider Details".

Complaints Handling

If a Member or Claimant has a complaint about this Discretionary Trust, including but not limited to a complaint about any non-payment of a Claim by the Trustee, they can communicate it to the Trustee or the Insurance Broker in the first instance.

Alternatively, if the Member or Claimant is not satisfied with the outcome, they may request a review of the decision by notifying: -

The Complaints Officer

Free call: 1300 904 503
Mail or in person: Level 23, 20 Bond Street, Sydney NSW 2000
Email: complaints.pacific@howdengroup.com

The complainant will be asked to provide comprehensive details to help investigate their complaint. All information will be treated in the strictest confidence. The Trustee or Insurance Broker will review the complaint and contact the complainant if additional information is required. The Trustee or Insurance Broker will provide the complainant with a response to the complaint within the timeframes required by the law.

The Trustee is a member of an approved external dispute resolution scheme designed to provide independent assistance to the complainant, namely the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). Subject to eligibility, AFCA provides a free service for consumers with complaints concerning the financial services industry. If the complainant is dissatisfied with the way in which the complaint is handled by the Trustee or the Insurance Broker, they can refer the complaint to AFCA.

Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA)

Free call: 1800 931 678
Mail: Australian Financial Complaints Authority
GPO Box 3, Melbourne, VIC 3001
Email: info@afca.org.au

The matter will then be reviewed by AFCA.

Privacy

The Insurance Broker and the Trustee (together, we, our) are committed to protecting privacy and are bound by the Australian Privacy Principles for the handling of personal information.

Our Privacy Policy can be viewed on the Internet at <https://www.howdengroup.com/au-en/privacy-policy> or is available on request.

We collect personal information about Members or individuals connected with Members directly.

We collect personal information for the purpose of operating the Trust, including for reporting purposes to Members of the Trust. If we are not provided with the requested personal information, we may not be able to admit an applicant as a Member of the Trust and we may not be able to process a Claim. We usually disclose personal information about Members or individuals connected with Members to (re)insurers that we use to protect the Trust.

We may disclose personal information about Members or individuals connected with Members to other Howden Group companies.

We may also disclose personal information to contractors who supply services to us and the providers of our administration and broking systems which are maintained by organisations in New Zealand, the Philippines and Vietnam.

You may request the details of the personal information we hold about you and if requested in writing, we must disclose this information to You. If we receive a written complaint about the collection or handling of personal information, we will try to respond within 30 days.

Section 2: Cover Information

Scope of Cover

The Trust Cover may respond to physical loss, destruction or damage to property (including but not limited to fire, water and storm damage) held in a storage facility operated by the applicable Advocate, not excluded below.

Each unit will be subject to the following limits of cover:

Standard cover per unit	Up to $50,000 for complimentary first month's cover
Following the first month's storage	You nominate your limit up to a maximum of $50,000

Your limit is nominated on the applicable Advocate's customer storage protection cover application form and the cover being provided under this arrangement will not exceed this amount, regardless of the value of goods in storage.

Claim Settlements

Claims may be settled in one of the following methods:

- Indemnity value, subject to adjustment for Depreciation outlined below, for
 - Clothing, linen and similar items; and
 - All other personal effects and household or commercial goods over five (5) years old at the time of loss, destruction or damage.
- Replacement value for all other personal effects and household or commercial goods under five (5) years old at the time of loss, destruction or damage. Replacement value is the reasonable cost of repair or replacement to a condition substantially the same as when new.
- Cost to replace or reinstate documents but not the value of the information contained therein, for archived records.
- Maximum of $1,000 each and every item up to a maximum of $5,000 in total for all paintings, antiques, curios and works of art.
- Current market value for alcoholic spirits, wine or beer. This is the amount to purchase goods from all available markets.

Depreciation

Indemnity value noted above is the amount to replace or repair your goods less an equitable amount for age, wear, tear and depreciation or an adjustment for the general condition or useful life of the individual items. The value of your goods will be depreciated at the rates as follows for each year since being acquired as new:

Clothing, linen and similar	15%
Personal and/or laptop computers	10%
Communication or photographic equipment	10%
Electronic equipment, iPod, mobile phones, CDs and DVDs	10%
Any other computerised or electronic equipment	10%
Camping, sporting and leisure equipment (excl clothing)	10%

Musical instruments (incl electrical)	10%
Building supplies and materials	10%
Household furniture and electrical goods	10%
Office furniture and office electrical machines	10%
Any other goods	10%

Section 3: Risks of Trust Cover

There are a number of risks a Prospective Member should be aware of under the Discretionary Trust including:

1. The payment of benefits under the Trust Cover is at the absolute discretion of the Trustee which means that the Trustee may exercise its discretion not to pay a Claim if it deems this would not be in the interests of its Members.
2. Ongoing membership of the Discretionary Trust is at the discretion of the Trustee and a Member's cover will cease once they advise the Trustee of termination or cease their storage arrangements with the applicable Advocate. A Claim cannot be made for an event occurring after this occurs.
3. The payment of benefits under the Trust Cover is dependent on sufficient Member Funds being available under the Discretionary Trust to meet claims.
